

THE DEMOCRAT.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY

MARNEY & HUGHES.

Office on Third street, East side, between Market and Jefferson.

Our Carriers are accustomed to supply the Daily Democrat at 10 cents per week, payable weekly to the Carriers, or payable quarterly in advance at the Office. All subscribers by the year can avail themselves of this privilege.

Democratic Ticket, 1852.

FOR PRESIDENT,
STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, of Illinois.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
R. M. T. HUNTER, of Virginia.

MONDAY, : : FEBRUARY 9, 1852.

FOR SALE AT THE DESK.
Copies of the Daily Paper can be procured at the desk, with or without envelopes, at 5 cents per single copy or 35 cents per dozen.

THE abolitionists, at their convention in Boston some days ago, issued their bull against Kosuth; thus:

THE INTUITIVE CALCULATOR.—We had the pleasure of seeing, on Saturday, a remarkable case of extraordinary power of calculation in the person of Mr. M. HOLLAND, a young man of 18 or 20 years of age, and a native of Monroe county, in this State. He would perform multiplication with the largest numbers without apparent study. 625 multiplied by 625 gives what? He answered almost as promptly as one would say yes or no to an ordinary question. Several persons present told him the date of their birth; he told them almost instantly their age in days, and the day of the week on which they were born.

We have seen two or three persons before possessing the same faculty in a greater or less degree. These facts our old metaphysical philosophy can not account of. They are indeed almost as mysterious as spiritual rappings.

This young man will be in the city some days, and the curious in such matters can be gratified by testing his powers for themselves.

Democracy, however, appears to be getting beside itself.—Low Journal.

Democracy can't help that; whigery is pretty much obsolete, and it has nothing but itself to get beside of.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

[Correspondence of the Louisville Democrat.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, 1852.

Messrs. Editors: The letter of Mr. Clemens, U. S. Senator from Alabama, published in yesterday's Union, has created a good deal of sensation here, and there is danger that, between State rights men and Union men of the South, the feud, half smothered if not subdued, will break out with renewed violence. This is deeply to be regretted, as it must necessarily tend to weaken the strength of the democratic party, not only South, but in the Union, and just by that amount increase that of the whigs.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter third, from Tochman to Kosuth, contains the following:

I cannot refrain from expressing great surprise at the news of your communication. Under ordinary circumstances, the manner in which Mrs. Tochman has consistently proved to his unfortunate countrymen in exile, whom the change of fortune has cast into poverty and want, is a matter of high interest. You will be gratified to hear that he consistently with his position, met every opportunity to prove to you his sincere gratitude for this.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter fourth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter fifth, from Tochman to Kosuth, contains the following:

I cannot refrain from expressing great surprise at the news of your communication. Under ordinary circumstances, the manner in which Mrs. Tochman has consistently proved to his unfortunate countrymen in exile, whom the change of fortune has cast into poverty and want, is a matter of high interest. You will be gratified to hear that he consistently with his position, met every opportunity to prove to you his sincere gratitude for this.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter sixth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter seventh, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter eighth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter ninth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter tenth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter eleventh, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter twelfth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter thirteenth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter fourteenth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter fifteenth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter sixteenth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter seventeenth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter eighteenth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter nineteenth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know to exist.

It is, however, if you are right in regarding Mr. Ujhazi as a friend of His Excellency the Governor, and as an honorable and upright gentleman, that you will be greatly pleased to assure you that, at that respect you are right. His Excellency and his friends and esteem Mr. Ujhazi as his oldest and one of his truest friends, and he could not wish for a better man to be his successor.

With respect due consideration, P. NAGY,
Secretary to Governor Kosuth.

Letter twentieth, from Kosuth to Tochman, contains the following:

Upon the arrival of that report, which a gentleman intended to enter, that His Excellency the Governor desired Madame Tochman to be tranquillized about the matter, that, as nothing His Excellency or the others could do, he would be compelled to resign, he was greatly grieved, and, as far as he could, he would be troubled with idle gossip, they have to this very moment not the least knowledge of the circulation of such a report against the reputation of Madame Tochman; nor, of course, none of the persons who have any intention to give credit to a thing which they not even know

THE DEMOCRAT.

MONDAY, : : FEBRUARY 9, 1852.

INDIANA.—The bill from the House directing this State for the next Congress, and decree, passed the Senate on the 5th inst., and requiring only the approval of the Governor, is now, we presume, a law. Many changes were made in the several bills introduced; and some dissatisfaction now exists to the details of the plan adopted, but no measure of this character can satisfy all.

It appears that our neighbors of Clark and Floyd remain together under the present arrangement; but Dunham's district loses Jefferson, Jennings and Jackson counties, and receives Harrison, Crawford, Orange and Perry.

The bill constitutes the districts as follows: 1. Posey, Vanderburgh, Warrick, Spencer, Dubois, Perry, Gibson, Knox, Daviess, and Martin. 2. Perry, Crawford, Orange, Washington, Harrison, Floyd, Clark, and Scott.

3. Lawrence, Monroe, Brown, Bartholomew, Jackson, Jennings, Jefferson, and Switzerland. 4. Ohio, Dearborn, Ripley, Franklin, Decatur, and Rush.

5. Union, Fayette, Wayne, Randolph, Delaware, and Henry.

6. Shelby, Johnson, Morgan, Hancock, Henry, and Marion.

7. Sullivan, Green, Owen, Clay, Vigo, Vermilion, Parke, and Putnam.

8. Montgomery, Boone, Clinton, Tippecanoe, Fountain, Warren, and Carroll.

9. Miami, Cass, Fulton, Marshall, St. Joseph, LaPorte, Ste. Genevieve, Jasper, Porter, Lake, Benton, and White.

10. Elkhart, Kosciusko, Whitley, Noble, LaGrange, Steuben, DeKalb, and Allen.

11. Wabash, Huntington, Wells, Adams, Jay, Blackford, Grant, Madison, Hamilton, Tipton, and Howard.

II Professor Kinkie, the German patriot, will meet Kossuth at Cincinnati.

II The wreck of the steamer Jewess, as she lies at the St. Louis wharf, was sold on Monday for $670.

II Large quantities of sugar and molasses are brought up from New Orleans by every arrival.

II The "Amazon" is the seventh steamer belonging to the Atlantic and Pacific Junction Company, in England, that has been destroyed.

II A hackman was robbed of his pocket book containing a small amount of money, while asleep on his back in front of the Theatre, on Friday night.

II Newspapers are springing up in Oregon very rapidly. We have received in the last week, four new papers that have been recently started there.

II "The Evening Picayune" is the name of a new daily paper just started at Baltimore by an association of enterprising printers, under the firm of "Hyde, Bruce & Co."

PROGRESS IN DELAWARE.—The bill for calling a State convention to amend the Constitution of Delaware, has passed both branches of the Legislature.

II Mr. J. J. Faaren, senior editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has been selected to preside at the banquet at the Burnet House in honor to Kossuth.

II A vote of the people of Jessamine county is to be taken on the 16th of March, on a proposition to subscribe $75,000 to the stock of the Lexington and Danville Railroad Company, to be paid in the county bonds.

II We are in the enjoyment of a lovely day, and shadows covered with ice.

The express offices, of which Adams & Co.'s are the chief, always give the head of Wall street a hustling appearance; but the locale of the money-changers and stockholders, further down, is rather quiet this morning. Mr. Thompson, a broker, was badly shaved on Saturday by a Jew named Abrahams, who sold him a large quantity of copper ore as gold dust.—Some shaves of this sort are on the principle of "diamond cut diamond." Several prominent purchasers of gold dust in this neighborhood are currently reported either to use false weights, or misrepresent the quality of the ore, or to blow out behind their counters a portion of every lot they trade for, under the pretence of ridding it of the black sand.

WINDFALL.—A poor shoemaker in Covington, Ky., has just received intelligence that a relative in Ireland, recently deceased, has made him the sole heir to his estates, which is now producing an annual income of several thousand pounds sterling. Lucky man.

THE RIVER AND WEATHER.—The river on Saturday was filled with floating ice from the Allegheny river. It had entirely disappeared yesterday. On the falls last evening there was 7 feet 8 inches water, which is quite sufficient for the largest class boats.

The weather continues delightfully pleasant.

II Two years ago a young girl disappeared from Eliot's Mills, West of Baltimore, and the supposition was that she had been murdered or drowned. The other day she returned home, bringing with her a clever husband and a nice baby.

SINGULAR.—A man named John Arthur, stole a barrel of pork a few days ago, in Cincinnati, for which he was arrested. While the officers were taking him to trial, he requested to go into a board yard alone, which was granted; and while there, he cut his own throat to keep from going before the Justice. Strange world, this!

II Coroner C. C. Green held an inquest on the body of a man, whose name was unknown to the jury, (at Shippingport) on Saturday, the 7th inst. The body had the appearance of having been in the water some time; and had on a white flannel shirt, cotton shirt, blue cloth pants, coarse boots and yar socks. There was found in his pockets $4, in American half dollars, a white handle knife, a steel guard chain, all of which are the hands of the Coroner.

Verdict of the Jury—came to his death by drowning.

PRESIDENT TO LOLA MONTEZ.—On Saturday evening, 31st ult., Lola Montez performed in Philadelphia for the benefit of disabled firemen; and on its conclusion she was called out, when Col. Wallace, on behalf of the firemen, in a neat speech, presented her with a medalion of Gen. Washington. Lola made a short reply, in substance as follows:

"Oh, sir! what can I say to you and your brave associates, for this inestimable gift. You could not have conferred upon me a greater honor, a more real pleasure—the image of one known all over the world as the father of this glorious country. May all the world remember the example of the patriotic firemen. Sir, I thank you, and wish you and your association all prosperity. Ladies and gentlemen, good night."

WHAT KOSSETH HAS BEEN DOING FOR HUNGARY.—The following reply was made by Kossuth at Pittsburgh, in answer to a committee investigating him to Cleveland, Ohio.—

"Gentlemen.—You will know my wishes when I tell you that already one hundred and sixty thousand dollars have been raised in this country for the Hungarian fund, and but thirty thousand of it has been realized for my suffering cause. The rest has been eaten, drunk, and toasted out in costly banquets and foolish parades, for which I have no taste and in which I take no pleasure. I have contracted for 40,000 muskets at $2 each—$80,000; I have made one payment, and have got others to make, or lose what has been paid. If all the money raised could have been properly expended, my mission would, are this, have been ended, and the basis of my country's liberty secured."

THE ERIC RAILROAD COMPANY now send passengers from New York to Dunkirk at $4 each.

EX-PRESIDENT VAN BUREN is said to be writing a political history of his own times.

II We understand that several failures have occurred in Mayville, Ky., recently.

II A number of our citizens went up to Cincinnati yesterday, to witness the reception of Juan Ruiz, their commandant.

THE SPENCER FAMILY are giving concerts in Zanesville, Ohio.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

(Correspondence of the Louisville Democrat.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 18, 1852.

Messrs. Editors: Some snow yesterday, very slippery walking, and a slim attendance at the churches. In the afternoon, I heard Rev. Mr. Prime, the editor of a Presbyterian weekly publication, preach a very capital sermon upon the Scribes and Pharisees.

The Scribes, he said, from their employment as transcribers or copyists of the scriptures in that age, prior to the origin of printing, became familiar with every letter of the Mosaic law, and were looked up to as authority in all questions concerning it. Hence, they arrogated to themselves the veneration of the Jews, and regarded themselves as the sole depositaries of spiritual knowledge on earth, if not the chosen oracles of God. The Pharisees, a sect from which the Scribes were taken, took great pride in a strict conformity to all the ceremonial and exactions of the old dispensation, and they possessed a large influence over the Jews. They wore long robes and long faces, and made long prayers at the corners of the streets; but with all this religious exterior, no innate piety warmed and purified their hearts. They were selfish, bigoted and cruel. Saul of Tarsus, before his conversion, was a very strict Pharisee, yet a persecutor and murderer of the christians.

The preacher drew a parallel between these rigid observers of the forms and external exercises of religion, in old times, and many professors of the present day, modern editions of the ancient Pharisees, whose manners speak as loud words could do, "I am holier than thou!" Yet evince nothing in their lives to warrant the belief that they have in their hearts any love either to God or their neighbor.

In the evening occurred the monthly concert of prayer for the missions. It was an interesting thought, that in the evangelical communities throughout the United States, England, Scotland, Ireland, France, (shew we France, God-forsaken France?) and indeed, throughout all christendom at the same hour, more than a hundred thousand assemblages of christian men and women, divided by location only, but one and indivisible under the eye of an all-seeing power.

II Professor Kinkie, the German patriot, will meet Kossuth at Cincinnati.

II The wreck of the steamer Jewess, as she lies at the St. Louis wharf, was sold on Monday for $670.

II Large quantities of sugar and molasses are brought up from New Orleans by every arrival.

II The "Amazon" is the seventh steamer belonging to the Atlantic and Pacific Junction Company, in England, that has been destroyed.

II A hackman was robbed of his pocket book containing a small amount of money, while asleep on his back in front of the Theatre, on Friday night.

II Newspapers are springing up in Oregon very rapidly. We have received in the last week, four new papers that have been recently started there.

II "The Evening Picayune" is the name of a new daily paper just started at Baltimore by an association of enterprising printers, under the firm of "Hyde, Bruce & Co."

PROGRESS IN DELAWARE.—The bill for calling a State convention to amend the Constitution of Delaware, has passed both branches of the Legislature.

II Mr. J. J. Faaren, senior editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has been selected to preside at the banquet at the Burnet House in honor to Kossuth.

II A vote of the people of Jessamine county is to be taken on the 16th of March, on a proposition to subscribe $75,000 to the stock of the Lexington and Danville Railroad Company, to be paid in the county bonds.

WINDFALL.—A poor shoemaker in Covington, Ky., has just received intelligence that a relative in Ireland, recently deceased, has made him the sole heir to his estates, which is now producing an annual income of several thousand pounds sterling. Lucky man.

THE RIVER AND WEATHER.—The river on Saturday was filled with floating ice from the Allegheny river. It had entirely disappeared yesterday. On the falls last evening there was 7 feet 8 inches water, which is quite sufficient for the largest class boats.

The weather continues delightfully pleasant.

II Two years ago a young girl disappeared from Eliot's Mills, West of Baltimore, and the supposition was that she had been murdered or drowned. The other day she returned home, bringing with her a clever husband and a nice baby.

SINGULAR.—A man named John Arthur, stole a barrel of pork a few days ago, in Cincinnati, for which he was arrested. While the officers were taking him to trial, he requested to go into a board yard alone, which was granted; and while there, he cut his own throat to keep from going before the Justice. Strange world, this!

II Coroner C. C. Green held an inquest on the body of a man, whose name was unknown to the jury, (at Shippingport) on Saturday, the 7th inst. The body had the appearance of having been in the water some time; and had on a white flannel shirt, cotton shirt, blue cloth pants, coarse boots and yar socks. There was found in his pockets $4, in American half dollars, a white handle knife, a steel guard chain, all of which are the hands of the Coroner.

Verdict of the Jury—came to his death by drowning.

PRESIDENT TO LOLA MONTEZ.—On Saturday evening, 31st ult., Lola Montez performed in Philadelphia for the benefit of disabled firemen; and on its conclusion she was called out, when Col. Wallace, on behalf of the firemen, in a neat speech, presented her with a medalion of Gen. Washington. Lola made a short reply, in substance as follows:

"Oh, sir! what can I say to you and your brave associates, for this inestimable gift. You could not have conferred upon me a greater honor, a more real pleasure—the image of one known all over the world as the father of this glorious country. May all the world remember the example of the patriotic firemen. Sir, I thank you, and wish you and your association all prosperity. Ladies and gentlemen, good night."

THE ERIC RAILROAD COMPANY now send passengers from New York to Dunkirk at $4 each.

EX-PRESIDENT VAN BUREN is said to be writing a political history of his own times.

II We understand that several failures have occurred in Mayville, Ky., recently.

II A number of our citizens went up to Cincinnati yesterday, to witness the reception of Juan Ruiz, their commandant.

THE SPENCER FAMILY are giving concerts in Zanesville, Ohio.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

(Correspondence of the Louisville Democrat.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 18, 1852.

Messrs. Editors: Some snow yesterday, very slippery walking, and a slim attendance at the churches. In the afternoon, I heard Rev. Mr. Prime, the editor of a Presbyterian weekly publication, preach a very capital sermon upon the Scribes and Pharisees.

The Scribes, he said, from their employment as transcribers or copyists of the scriptures in that age, prior to the origin of printing, became familiar with every letter of the Mosaic law, and were looked up to as authority in all questions concerning it. Hence, they arrogated to themselves the veneration of the Jews, and regarded themselves as the sole depositaries of spiritual knowledge on earth, if not the chosen oracles of God. The Pharisees, a sect from which the Scribes were taken, took great pride in a strict conformity to all the ceremonial and exactions of the old dispensation, and they possessed a large influence over the Jews. They wore long robes and long faces, and made long prayers at the corners of the streets; but with all this religious exterior, no innate piety warmed and purified their hearts. They were selfish, bigoted and cruel. Saul of Tarsus, before his conversion, was a very strict Pharisee, yet a persecutor and murderer of the christians.

The preacher drew a parallel between these rigid observers of the forms and external exercises of religion, in old times, and many professors of the present day, modern editions of the ancient Pharisees, whose manners speak as loud words could do, "I am holier than thou!" Yet evince nothing in their lives to warrant the belief that they have in their hearts any love either to God or their neighbor.

In the evening occurred the monthly concert of prayer for the missions. It was an interesting thought, that in the evangelical communities throughout the United States, England, Scotland, Ireland, France, (shew we France, God-forsaken France?) and indeed, throughout all christendom at the same hour, more than a hundred thousand assemblages of christian men and women, divided by location only, but one and indivisible under the eye of an all-seeing power.

II Professor Kinkie, the German patriot, will meet Kossuth at Cincinnati.

II The wreck of the steamer Jewess, as she lies at the St. Louis wharf, was sold on Monday for $670.

II Large quantities of sugar and molasses are brought up from New Orleans by every arrival.

II The "Amazon" is the seventh steamer belonging to the Atlantic and Pacific Junction Company, in England, that has been destroyed.

II A hackman was robbed of his pocket book containing a small amount of money, while asleep on his back in front of the Theatre, on Friday night.

II Newspapers are springing up in Oregon very rapidly. We have received in the last week, four new papers that have been recently started there.

II "The Evening Picayune" is the name of a new daily paper just started at Baltimore by an association of enterprising printers, under the firm of "Hyde, Bruce & Co."

PROGRESS IN DELAWARE.—The bill for calling a State convention to amend the Constitution of Delaware, has passed both branches of the Legislature.

II Mr. J. J. Faaren, senior editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has been selected to preside at the banquet at the Burnet House in honor to Kossuth.

II A vote of the people of Jessamine county is to be taken on the 16th of March, on a proposition to subscribe $75,000 to the stock of the Lexington and Danville Railroad Company, to be paid in the county bonds.

WINDFALL.—A poor shoemaker in Covington, Ky., has just received intelligence that a relative in Ireland, recently deceased, has made him the sole heir to his estates, which is now producing an annual income of several thousand pounds sterling. Lucky man.

II Newspapers are springing up in Oregon very rapidly. We have received in the last week, four new papers that have been recently started there.

II "The Evening Picayune" is the name of a new daily paper just started at Baltimore by an association of enterprising printers, under the firm of "Hyde, Bruce & Co."

PROGRESS IN DELAWARE.—The bill for calling a State convention to amend the Constitution of Delaware, has passed both branches of the Legislature.

II Mr. J. J. Faaren, senior editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has been selected to preside at the banquet at the Burnet House in honor to Kossuth.

II A vote of the people of Jessamine county is to be taken on the 16th of March, on a proposition to subscribe $75,000 to the stock of the Lexington and Danville Railroad Company, to be paid in the county bonds.

WINDFALL.—A poor shoemaker in Covington, Ky., has just received intelligence that a relative in Ireland, recently deceased, has made him the sole heir to his estates, which is now producing an annual income of several thousand pounds sterling. Lucky man.

II Newspapers are springing up in Oregon very rapidly. We have received

